

Aycock Signs ^{TP}₄₋₁₈₋₆₇ Novel Papers

Acting Gov. C. C. "Taddy" Aycock Monday in Baton Rouge signed extradition papers seeking return from Ohio of Gordon Novel on a burglary charge.

Novel, formerly a New Orleans night-spot operator, is a fugitive witness in Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's probe of the Kennedy assassination.

William Redmann, executive counsel to the governor, said the papers seeking Novel's return to Louisiana were based on a charge of conspiring to burglarize an oil well drilling firm's munitions bunker at Houma, La.

Secretary of State Wade O. Martin's office was sending the papers to the Ohio governor for action.
